

BULGARIA ASKS TRUCE WITH ENTENTE POWERS

Official Report From Germany That Premier Malinoff Proposes Armistice --With Army on the Run Bulgarian Internal Condition is Grave.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
London, Sept. 27. (12:23 p. m.).—It is officially reported from Germany that Bulgaria has proposed an armistice to the Entente powers, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen this afternoon.

The dispatch added that it had been learned in Berlin that Premier Malinoff, of Bulgaria, made the offer without the support of the other members of the cabinet or King Ferdinand.

It is claimed by Berlin that this action will cause great dissatisfaction in Bulgaria and that strong military measures have been taken to support the Bulgarian battle front.

Zurich, Sept. 27.—Internal conditions in Bulgaria have reached a maximum of gravity and the cabinet has been in continuous session at Sofia since Sunday, according to advices received here today.

The police of Sofia, fearing an outbreak, have taken stern measures of repression.

The Bulgarian parliament is demanding the truth of the political situation.

For some time there have been reports of growing unrest in war-weary Bulgaria. A cabinet crisis is threatened and it was reported yesterday that the situation had become so acute that a state of siege had been proclaimed at Sofia.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The State department was without any official word today regarding the reported Bulgarian armistice offer. The official newspaper reports were received with some reserve by officials who stated that "until they had additional facts" they did not care to discuss the matter.

The very fact that the report originated from German sources was significant. Officials were wary about a possible German trick designed to safeguard the situation in the Near East and to prevent the cutting of the lines of communication between Germany-Austria and Constantinople.

The Bulgarians are on the run, officials pointed out, and can be depended on to do everything possible to retain the territory they now hold.

The United States is not at war with Bulgaria. Consequently, its interest in any armistice offer would be confined to the effect such an offer would have upon its allies who are actually at war with Czar Ferdinand's country. But President Wilson is on record as insisting that when peace comes it must be solved on racial lines, which means that Serbia and Montenegro must be restored.

M. Panaretov, the Bulgarian minister, has no word regarding the proposed armistice. He is not in direct communication with his government and expressed the belief that, if any such offer has been made, he would not be able to learn officially of it.

One report which reached diplomats here, but which was not confirmed, was that Crown Prince Boris was to be named regent in place of Czar Ferdinand and that this would be followed by a request for peace terms. Premier Malinoff is reported to favor some such step to head off a constantly growing peace movement.

Amsterdam, Sept. 27.—Germany intends to send a solemn protest against the Bulgarian premier's proposal for an armistice in the Balkans, according to reports from Berlin and Vienna this afternoon.

German newspapers are said to be demanding the immediate dismissal of Malinoff, the Bulgarian premier, and his court martial for high treason.

It is believed that Malinoff's action will result in Germany's refusal to send sufficient reinforcements to the Bulgarian front to stem the Allied drive.

BULGARS LOSE
Main Line of Communication Supplying Long Front.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
London, Sept. 27.—(2:05 p. m.).—The main line of communication supplying the Bulgarians on the whole front of Dobruja and Monastir has been cut by the Allies, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Salonika this afternoon.

This line was deemed when the Allies occupied the strategic ridge between the Vardar and Hakkia rivers.

The Bulgars are falling back on the Struma river, also.

(The extreme left flank of the Bulgarian army has been resting on the Struma in Greek Macedonia.)

To Travel Movement.
Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Montreux Cemetery Mrs. Aaron Rice of Albany, a former resident, will unveil a monument in memory of her husband.

ADDRESSES TO THE SUFFRAGISTS

Canfield and Jenkins Decline to Bid For Party Votes—Miss Cary Shows That Victory is Question of Food.

While the afternoon program of the convention of the Ulster County Woman's Suffrage Party and Conference of Women Voters held at Wiltwyck Inn on Thursday afternoon was changed about considerably, it was a varied and interesting one offering much food for thought.

Mayor Canfield was put down to tell "Why Women Should Vote the Republican Ticket," which of course he did not, just as County Judge Jenkins stated frankly, when presented to speak on "Why Women Should Vote the Democratic Ticket," "I won't do it!" And finally Miss Cary, who had an extremely interesting account to give of war conditions in England, especially in connection with the Land Army movement, spoke early in the afternoon in order to catch the train for an evening mass meeting in Albany.

The mayor was the first speaker of the afternoon and stated that it would be impossible, in ten minutes, to tell why one should vote either the national or state Republican ticket. Different parties stood for different principles, and today one principle dominates all parties, that of winning the war, so that at present there is less of voting for certain set issues and more of voting for the man because of personality and character.

The suffrage party had sent out to the four candidates of both parties a "questionnaire" which covered their loyalty to support the government in its war policies; the federal suffrage amendment; the ratification of the prohibition amendment; the improvement of the rural school legislation; equal pay for equal work for men and women legislation; legislation against all profiteering; the appointment of a wage commission to set a minimum wage for girls and women on which they could live decently; the continuance and proper progress relating to our labor laws.

Mrs. Michael, Democratic candidate for assemblyman—the first woman candidate in the state—answered yes to all of the questions, qualifying the one relative to progress in labor laws, with the statement "so far as she knew them."

Joel Brink, Republican candidate, answered "yes" to all, but reserved the right to his own opinion of what constituted "proper progressive legislation" relative to labor laws. He also sent a letter stating his past political history as shown by what he had previously voted for as assemblyman.

The Democratic candidate for state senator, Sol Carpenter of Highland, answered "yes" to all but the question relative to the minimum wage for girls and women, where he stated that he did not understand the question well enough to answer but was for a minimum wage that would allow a girl or woman to live well enough so that she need not harter her body and soul, and further stated that he did not know all the labor laws.

Republican State Senator Charles W. Walton answered "yes" to all with a few mental reservations expressed as to future conditions which might call for modification or improvements in legislation.

Republican Congressman Charles B. Ward and Democratic Congressman Evans (candidates) answered yes to such questions as would apply to their positions but have failed to give any answer to the question as to the federal suffrage amendment or the ratification of the prohibition amendment, and it was voted to send telegrams to both candidates asking them to give their views on these two matters.

Mrs. Freedom of Milton, who read the questionnaires and the answers, prefaced that performance by calling attention to the fact that today we are fighting to keep the world safe for democracy, and furthermore noted that now as never before, democracy demands that the man or woman holding public office shall be the servant of the will of the people.

Miss Sophie Cary, official speaker for the food board of the United States and for Great Britain, spoke fervently, from experience and with the conviction of one who had actually lived on the hunger side of the world, for even the people in London have had their hungry times. In England women do not enlist to do some Red Cross work, etc., they call to do what the government asks of them for a year at the least, usually for the duration of the war. They have no real eight hour day in Great Britain. When a big drive comes, munitions must be supplied constantly, and the girls and women work until exhausted and their places are filled with reserves from the offices and places of business who work through all or part of the night, go home, wash up, and go back to their desks.

Yet under this stress of living all must live on a ration. A pound and a quarter of meat a person a week is allowed.

"The women of America must be drafted and trained for labor on the farms," said Miss Cary. Because of the trained English women, Great Britain has raised, one and a half acres of crops and instead of supplying one-fourth of what the English people eat, the country now supplies four-fifths. Miss Cary believed that the American women were every bit as efficient and able as the English women.

She then showed conclusively how starvation had been from the beginning, one of the Kaiser's strongest weapons of warfare.

In closing Miss Cary said that our men are giving their all at the front. When they come back, as they will, the most of them, how will they think of us. Shall we have sacrificed so little that they will be disappointed in us, or shall we measure up to and if possible excel the English and French women in our sacrificing so that our returning men may be as proud of us as we of them?

Chester Young, chairman of the Ulster Farm Bureau was next introduced to speak on "What the Voter Can Do For the Farmer," and while he was very modest in the demands which he put forth for "the farmer," he had some excellent things to say "by the way." Mr. Young felt that since the war the farmer had indeed come into his own, but believed that he had no place in politics, such as was now trying to be forced upon them by some of the politicians. The only way to intelligently secure such an increase of crops as Miss Cary asked for, was through advice with an equal council from the Farm Bureau.

On motion of Mrs. Howard Gillespie of Saugerties, the meeting went on record with a resolution to be presented to the supervisors, asking for an increased appropriation for the Farm Bureau.

The next speaker was Judge Jenkins, who gave a little talk on "The Psychology of Suffrage." He considered voting not a matter of creed or emotion but of judgment. While the voter might affiliate him or herself with any party, it was not obligatory that they should always adhere to that party. Three things the speaker urged upon the women voters: Careful thinking on living conditions; Sincerity; a sense of humor that could pleasantly take defeat.

The third political party was represented by the Rev. P. N. Chase, Ph.D., who presented some of the reasons "Why Women Should Vote for Prohibition." Dr. Chase reminded the women that the Prohibition party was the first party to stand solidly for equal suffrage, which it did some forty years ago, even to the point of ridicule.

The last speaker of the afternoon, and one who was very pertinent in her remarks and business-like, was Mrs. Helen M. Leavitt of New York, whose subject was, "Practical Politics from the Woman's Standpoint."

Mrs. Leavitt urged the women to get into politics, but stated that did not mean get mixed up with the "machine," which was quite a different matter. Now that our men are away, the women will have to represent

CO. M BOYS ARE REPORTED WOUNDED

Sergeant Arthur Fox and Corporal J. Kenneth Canfield Reported Seriously Wounded on August 31.

Relatives of Sergeant Arthur Fox and of Corporal J. Kenneth Canfield of Company M, 51st Pioneer Infantry, were notified Thursday afternoon that both young men had been seriously wounded on August 31.

Sergeant Fox, who is about 22 years of age, made his home with his aunt, Mrs. Jesse DeWitt, of No. 67 Hudson street, and before entering the army was employed as a caulker on the Hillebrand shipyard. His many friends trust that he may soon recover from his wounds. His aunt also received a letter from his chum stating that her nephew was unable to write as yet, for her not to worry and to write her nephew at the same address as in the past.

CORPORAL J. R. CANFIELD.

Canfield May Lose Foot.
Corporal Canfield, is a son of former City Treasurer James E. Canfield, who is now secretary of the Chamber of Commerce at Saratoga Springs. Corporal Canfield's wife is a daughter of Dr. W. E. E. Little and resides with her parents on St. James street. She was notified by the war department that Corporal Canfield had been seriously wounded on August 31.

Mrs. Canfield also received a telephone message from Mrs. Cassidy that the latter had just received a letter from her husband, Captain Cassidy, in which he stated that Corporal Canfield had been wounded in the foot and it was feared that it might have to be amputated.

Street Rumors Unverified.

There were street rumors today that Private John J. Joyce had been seriously wounded and that Private Sam Basch was killed. In both cases the relatives had not been notified of any such thing, and until official notice is received all street rumors should be regarded as untrue.

The 51st Pioneer Infantry is made up of the skeleton of the old 10th N. Y. N. G. augmented by drafted men from New York state. Less than 20 per cent of the regiment had received any training before July of this year, the other 80 per cent being new men from the July draft. Company M had less than 50 of its original members, the remainder having been transferred last fall, principally to the 107th and 108th Regiments, in the 27th Division. Most of the Kingston men who joined the regiment in July were assigned to Company F. In view of the rawness of most of the regiment it is not likely that it has been in action, although it was a shell from a long range gun, reached it or it was hit by bombs from an aeroplane. On August 26, First Sergeant Dixon wrote that all was well.

Influenza to be Controlled.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Sept. 27.—Despite the fact that there are 35,146 cases of influenza reported from the various army camps, with 2,926 cases of resultant pneumonia, officials believe that the epidemic will shortly be controlled. It was because of a desire to aid the army doctors in every possible way and not because of fear that the malady was out of hand that Provost Marshal Crowder cancelled the order for the entrance between October 7 and 11 of 142,000 registrants from every section of the country. Apparently the center of the disease remains in Massachusetts.

Address at St. Mark's.

Mrs. M. J. Michael will deliver an address at St. Mark's A. M. E. Church on Foxhall avenue, this evening. A short program has been arranged. Charles DeWitt, the great female impersonator, will appear in "The Divine Girl's Message."

The tunnel which the Deegan Company is constructing for New York city water supply, will connect the reservoir to be built at Gibbs with the Ashokan reservoir.

Our Men and Poilus Took 15,000 Boches Yesterday and Victory Still Grows-- British Making Progress on 30 Mile Sensee Line--Good News From Other Fronts--Yankees Beat Flower of Hun Army.

With the French and Americans smashing through the German lines on a front of forty miles between Rheims and the Meuse river the British delivered another mighty assault today against the northern end of the Hindenburg line, making progress over a wide front.

The British drove home this new blow over a front of thirty miles south of the Sensee river, where a turning movement has long been in progress in Cambrai and St. Quentin. The number of German prisoners captured by the French and Americans in the first day of the great battle which has been raging since yesterday morning in the Champagne, the Argonne forest and the Verdun sector, was unofficially estimated today at about 15,000.

General Pershing announced on Thursday night that the Americans had taken over 5,000 prisoners while the French war office today reported the capture of more than 7,000. Many had not been counted when these figures were given out.

The French and Americans have captured over a score of villages and fortified farms and have advanced their lines from three to more than seven miles, penetrating the so-called new Hindenburg line at Montfaucon, 12 miles northwest of Verdun.

The extent of the brilliant victory is growing as additional reports are received from the battlefield. The Americans are now north of the positions held by the Germans before they began their offensive against Verdun in 1916.

The Germans were so badly beaten that they could not undertake any counter assaults and without giving them time to get their breath the French began fresh assaults this morning.

The Germans were "out-fought and out-generaled by the Americans." The Yankees were pitted against the flower of the German army but swept them aside with ease.

The Bulgarian debacle continues unchecked and the plight of King Ferdinand's war weary country has become so desperate that overtures have been made for an armistice by the Bulgarian premier, according to information from Germany which was said to be official.

While the Allies continue their advance in Serbia and Bulgaria, the British are keeping up grinding pressure against the Turks in Palestine. On the Balkan battle front the Allies are almost in Uskub, the chief Bulgarian base in southern Serbia, while the whole left wing of the Bulgarian second army is menaced by the British invasion of Bulgaria.

London, Sept. 27.—(11:12 a. m.).—Following closely upon the heels of the great American blow against the Germans west of the Meuse river, the British launched a new drive on a wide front south of the Sensee river today, the war office announced.

The Sensee river lies in the region east of Arras, between the Picardy and Flanders battle fronts. General Haig's new blow there is part of the great turning movement against Cambrai.

The war office stated that all reports indicated that satisfactory progress was being made. Gains were made by the British elsewhere, also.

Paris, Sept. 27.—French troops that attacked in Champagne in conjunction with the American drive in the Argonne forest and north of Verdun, advanced over three miles over a front of more than 21 miles, the war office announced today.

The extent of the great Allied victory is growing. All the way from Suippe to the Argonne forest the French brilliant "stormed powerful German defensive works that the Germans had been strengthening since 1915. The French captured 7,000 German prisoners in the first day of the battle, of whom 200 were officers.

General Pershing put the number of prisoners taken by the Americans at over 5,000. The assault was renewed this morning, despite bad weather. So badly were the Germans whipped that they could not undertake any counter attacks.

Paris, Sept. 27.—(4:30 a. m.).—Thousands of prisoners have been taken in the region of the Argonne forest by the advancing American troops who now threaten important lines of German communication running from east to west, according to advices just received from the front.

The first wounded Americans arriving from the Argonne fell during the morning of the success of the new offensive. They report that the German surprise in many places was absolute.

Some of the doughboys, who went over ahead of their barrage, found the Germans in their dugouts with closed doors, ignorant of the American attack. The doughboys waited until the barrage had passed and then burst upon the doors, capturing the bewildered Germans.

BLOCK PARTY PROCEEDS $1,070

Probably Largest Single Sum Realized at Single Entertainment Here--To Be Turned in to Red Cross.

Thursday evening a meeting was held of the executive committee of the first Block Party given in Kingston, and which occurred on the night of September 13th, for the benefit of the Ulster County Chapter of the Red Cross. It was the unanimous opinion of the entire committee that unmeasured thanks were due to Alfred Schmid, who modestly but un-defatigably worked in the inaugurating of, and carrying to its successful culmination, this affair. Thanks were also expressed to all the people of Main street and vicinity, for all the neighborhood to an interested and active pride in making it a success, for their untiring efforts. The delay in making the financial returns has been in part due to the fact that over 1,000 tickets were given to the Girl Scouts to sell and owing to the illness of Mrs. A. K. Hart, head of the Girl Scouts, there was a delay in receiving the full returns from these tickets.

The full report of Treasurer Cornelius Hume was as follows:

GIGANTIC TASK TO FEED OUR ARMY

American Supply Base Furnishes
New Ideas of Greatness—Three Months Reserve Rations Kept in Miles of Warehouses.

The American army in Europe could be fed and clothed and all its comforts looked after for three whole months even though not another pound of supplies was secured. This was the statement made by officers of the Army Quartermaster's Department, which directs supplies in Central France from headquarters at Tours, according to correspondence of the Associated Press.

It gives some idea of the vast stock of reserve resources stored in the miles of warehouses stretching from the coast inland to the fighting line, and assurance is added that this huge reserve will be kept up through the coming winter period.

It is a huge undertaking to feed a million men even for a single day—a million men scattered in a thousand points, in trenches, on battlefields and camps, along 300 miles of front and for a depth of 500 miles. And when are added housing and clothing, and the period is extended through the winter months, with the prospect that another million or two men may be headed toward France before long, one gets some idea of the magnitude of the supply problem for a million or more men.

It takes over four million pounds of food every day to feed the army. This prodigious daily consumption embraces a million pounds of flour baked into a million pounds of bread every day, 875,000 pounds of fresh beef, 875,000 pounds of potatoes, 200,000 pounds of sugar and 125,000 pounds of tomatoes. The pepper and salt for a single day is 42,500 pounds. Army coffee is roasted at the rate of 70,000 pounds a day, and it takes 20,000 pounds of solidified alcohol to cook this coffee through the month.

The beef is the bulkiest product used each day, and occupies a daily space of 45,000 cubic feet, or about the dimensions of a business block, of solid meat. Flour comes next, requiring 25,000 cubic feet of daily space, and potatoes about the same. These are only a few of the main items. But the list runs all through the many requirements of the overseas army ration, with vast quantities in each case. Here are some of the other daily items:

Bacon—225,000 pounds; beans, 75,000 pounds; rice, 50,000 pounds; onions, 250,000 pounds; evaporated fruit, 70,000; jam, 70,000 pounds; milk, 62,500 pounds; vinegar, 40,000 pounds; lard, 40,000 pounds; butter, 31,000 pounds; syrup, 40,000 pounds. Every one of the million men is entitled to his full allowance, and it must go forward to him wherever he is. So that besides the vast daily stock there is the question of unfailing daily delivery, first by railways and camion trains, and then to the individual soldier.

Often on the field or in the trenches the soldier is supplied from marmite, or huge thermos bottles carrying hot food for eight men, and often too, the delivery in the trenches is by the Yukon pack used in Alaska and by the Hudson Bay voyagers and Indians.

Besides this 4,000,000 pounds of food moving forward daily to the troops, each man carries with him two days' emergency ration. 675 pounds to the man, or an additional 5,000,000 pounds of food for an army of 1,000,000 men. Of the emergency ration carried on the back, there is outstanding every day 2,000,000 pounds of corned beef and 2,000,000 pounds of hardtack, 300,000 pounds of sugar, 62,500 pounds of coffee, 20,000 pounds of salt, and 500,000 pounds of solidified alcohol for heating and cooking while on march.

August 25, 1918.

Dear Brother Jake:

I'm in the very best of health. I hope to hear the same from you and the rest of the family.

We did some traveling since we left the states. The trip on the ship was a very pleasant trip. It took us 11 days to come over and since that time we traveled on trains and saw a whole lot of France. We are only stationed a little distance from the front, but in safe territory, so there is no use of worrying as everything looks very good for the Allies.

Also going through one of the towns I ran across two fellows from Kingston. One fellow's name is Van Gasebeck and the other is Griffin, and believe me, they were very glad to see us boys from home.

How is Abe making out? Was he made corporal or not? Tell him to drop me a letter. Did Sam Ransit go across, also how is the business and who have you got working for you? Write and tell me everything, as I like to know.

Well, dear brother, as I'm not allowed to write everything I want to write, and trusting that you will write to me at once, I remain,
Your brother,
HENRY.

Also was glad I took the money that you all gave for a man needs money very much out here. Love to all.

Is Christianity a Failure?

Some there are today who declare with confidence that Christianity is a failure because it did not prevent the outbreak of the mighty world-war that for over four years has been devastating so many lands. They ask: Is it not time to look for a substitute? On Sunday night at the St. James Methodist Church Dr. Baranwanath, the pastor, will endeavor to show when and where in the recent past Christianity apparently failed, and also where it did not fail.

HIGHLAND.

Highland, Sept. 26.—Ladies' Auxiliary Club will hold their regular meeting on Friday, October 4, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Elling. All members are requested to be present as business of importance is to come before the house. The hostesses, with Mrs. Elling, are Mrs. Charles Terwilliger, Mrs. Edward Rhoades and Mrs. J. R. Seaman. Hour, 8 o'clock sharp.

D. of A. will hold their regular session on Wednesday evening, October 2, when initiation will take place and refreshments will be served. Members of drill team are requested to be present for work.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Deyo have been in town from New York visiting Mr. and Mrs. Elias Abrams, parents of Mrs. Deyo, and other relatives for a short time.

The Madden family, who have been staying in this place for some time, keeping house in the J. P. Whitley boarding house, left for their New York home on Monday.

Katherine Schantz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Schantz, has left for Elmira where she enters school. Her friends about this place will miss her very much.

Floyd Gill, who has been ill at his home on the state road for a long time, was removed last week to New York and is in a hospital there, where he will get the best of care and medical treatment. He is improving a little, glad to say, and his friends hope he may soon be in his usual health and able to return to his home.

Mrs. Mary Malloch has rented her rooms on Grand street to a family by the name of Constable.

J. W. Feeter was in New York city a few days this week on business.

James H. Rose has returned home, after a few days spent with relatives in Paterson, N. J.

Miss Susie Lent of Richmond Hill, spent the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lent, on Grand street.

Mrs. Philip Landfried of Main street is at present visiting relatives in Brooklyn and expects to remain for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Eyett spent last Sunday in Poughkeepsie with Mrs. Van Aken, Mr. Eyett's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Maynard spent several days in New York city last week.

Mrs. Clark and daughter were in Poughkeepsie shopping, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Kurtz, daughter, Fannie, and son, Gordon, also Miss Lulu Constable, left Friday for a visit of several days with relatives, who reside in Paterson, N. J.

Mrs. Isaac Aldrich and daughter, Emma, were among the shoppers we saw in Poughkeepsie last Saturday.

Mrs. J. N. Merritt and daughter, Miss Carrie, of Brooklyn, were in town last Saturday calling on friends. They are looking fine and their many friends here were glad to see them, only the stay was altogether too short.

Last Friday evening Mrs. S. A. Ferris entertained her Sunday school class at her home on Grand street. At the business part, the election of officers took place, after which a jolly social time was enjoyed, and Mrs. Ferris served to all fine refreshments and all enjoyed them and declared they had spent a very pleasant evening with their teacher.

Mrs. Lacey of Grand street was in Poughkeepsie last Saturday combining business and pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Palmer, the newly-weds, have returned from their wedding trip and were in this place last week at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Palmer. They received congratulations from many friends here, who were fortunate enough to see them. We hear their permanent home will be in Poughkeepsie, where they will always receive and welcome all who may come to see them.

Edward Dyer's family of New York city, who have been occupying their cottage on Brinckerhoff avenue, will leave here for their town house on Saturday. We are sorry to have the family leave.

Mrs. Maude Adams came on from California last week and was at her palatial home at Maple avenue only a short time. She then went to New York, from there to New London where she has a fine home which is now used by the government. We heard she expects to have her furniture from her place here created by Luckey Platt & Co., and shipped to California. The climate there seems to agree with her and she will make her home there for some time. We can not blame her; for of course there is not much society here and she certainly will enjoy the pleasures and social life of the cities out there.

Mrs. J. C. Dedrick and Mrs. Theron DuBois were in Poughkeepsie last Saturday afternoon attending the play at Collingwood Opera House. They report it very good and certainly enjoyed it.

Among the many who were in the city of Poughkeepsie last Saturday we noticed Mrs. Archie Young, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Victor Berrian, Mrs. Roy Benson, Miss Quick and Mrs. George Huson, who seemed to be taking in the sights of new fall apparel. It is now time for all to come out with their new costumes, for we should all bear in mind, we will have to conserve on dress as well as food, although Mr. Hoover has not as yet given in his orders to that effect. Taking everything in consideration and the high price of goods all will have to do with less.

Mrs. B. N. Whitley is in New York city to remain for some time.

H. W. Lent, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lent, has left for New York city where he has entered New York University.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Schantz have had recent guests from Schenectady. Charles Champlain of Brooklyn, was a visitor in town last week.

Miss Ella Zimmerman of New Jersey, is visiting with her parents, also her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Elling, at their home on Milton avenue.

J. J. Donovan was a business visitor in Poughkeepsie on Tuesday.

Mrs. Silliman was hostess to the Missionary Society of the Y. E. Church on Wednesday afternoon. There was a good attendance and we considered the meeting very interesting.

Do not forget the clam chowder supper this Friday, from 5:30 to 8:30, in J. W. Feeter's hall. This we know is given by the official board of the church, so just be on hand and get the good eats they have prepared.

Mrs. F. Welker has had guests from California for a few days.

ALL THE BOYS READ THE FREEMAN

Whether From New Mexico or New York, Writes Albert Longyear, Port Quartermaster at Tours.

E. Longyear of No. 57 Green street has received a letter from his son, Albert, as follows:

Tours, August 29, 1918.

Dear Dad:

Received your letter this morning and was glad to hear that it let you all well. It reached me in good health, and still feeling fine. Have not heard from Alice lately but expect to get a letter from him some time this week. Tell Frank Miller that I will write to him and let him know how I am getting along; also tell Ed. and Mary that I will write them some time too but as yet have not received any answer.

Well, there is nothing to write about only that all the boys are from New Mexico or New York; it makes no difference as there is some news from the good old U. S. A. and that is all that is necessary.

Well, will have to close as I can't think of any more to write about. Will close with love to all and God bless the day when we shall all stand united once more with a world free for democracy and a nation of God-fearing and God-believing people.

All for this time: with love to all.

Your son,
ALBERT LONGYEAR.

The Good Done Unto Us.

We speak much of the duty of doing good to others, but too often we forget to count the good that others are continually doing to us. Intentionally or unintentionally, in kindness, in selfishness, in carelessness, they press upon us on every hand, and our lives are shaped and molded by those about us. Even the unreasonable and unbecoming—where we fancy the benefit is all of our bestowing—may be wonderful teachers of sanity and patience.

Tea Kettle Talk Number One

IF the bottom of your tea kettle were extended down in the fire like this one, the water would boil in just half the time, because the fire would be coming against that much more water-filled surface.

Kingstonian Boilers

are made on exactly the same principle. The entire fire is surrounded top and sides by water. The pump way it heats up the radiators and keeps them heated, would open your eyes.

Call around. Let us tell you of this boiler's economy points.

CASES HEARD IN COUNTY COURT

County Court, Judge Jenkins presiding, convened at the court house, Thursday after a recess from September 12th to take up the matter of the settlement by Philip Hasbrouck, a late supervisor from the town of Marbletown, who was given a suspended sentence on his plea of guilty to an indictment for malfeasance of funds, on a condition that a balance due be paid at certain times on installments.

In the Philip Hasbrouck case the matter was adjourned for one week when final action will be taken.

Jerry Isoldi, indicted as a common gambler in running a crap game on Broadway in March of this year pleaded guilty to a lesser crime of running a gaming house, which is a misdemeanor. Judge Jenkins held the case open for one week so as to make an investigation before passing sentence.

The stay in the case of Sylvester Cashdollar was held open for twenty-four hours to allow F. W. Brooks, his attorney, to file with the district attorney an order from Judge Howard that the case had been dismissed on appeal.

William Cole and Clarence Wright, indicted for grand larceny in stealing a Ford car of Judge Charles B. Wright of town of Gardiner, pleaded guilty, and case was held open for one week. They are New York Guardsmen on duty at the aqueduct.

Court then took a recess until Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

ELLENVILLE.

Ellenville, Sept. 26.—Permission could not be obtained from the board of education to use the heated public schools Friday afternoons, directly following school hours for the weighing and measuring of children as is done in other places in compliance with a government request that children under school age should have a record made of their physical condition. An effort will be made to find another heated building where mothers can in safety bring their children. Announcement of the place will be made later. It is hoped that the inability to obtain the use of the schools for this purpose will not discourage those in charge of the work for the expressed wish on the part of the United States government to protect the health of the children. Should not be lightly considered. Demands of war work have taken many nurses and doctors and those left are crowded with work. Ellenville is fortunate in having Mrs. Lionel Booth consent to supervise this work for she has had several years of successful experience, having been child welfare nurse in Poughkeepsie, the banner city in New York state. Other nurses have consented to give one hour a week to the work free. Parents are advised to consult the family physician on any subject beyond what the government requests these free public nurses to do. Time and place will be announced later.

The crowd attending the world's fair at Grammesville Wednesday, was beyond all expectation. The fair was bigger and better than ever and everybody enjoyed it. One family going from Ellenville by automobile had a bad spill by which several were injured but fortunately no deaths resulted. This car with several occupants turned out to the right just above Dureka as a man pulled his car out from the garage to the main road. The car that pulled out encountered "the ditch" by which the car made a turn over and back again on its wheels. The entire party were more or less seriously injured. One man sustained a broken leg two or more broken arms. The names of those in the car going from Ellenville were Osterhout and they were very unfortunate in the smash up.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ryan and son, Harry Ryan and wife, all of Pittston, Pa., arrived in Ellenville on Wednesday by auto to visit Mr. Ryan's niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Kimble.

Mrs. Lillie Bloome Lyon has returned from an extended trip of several months which included a visit with her brother, John Bloomer, at Ridgeway, Pa.

Miss Ella Sheridan has returned to New York after spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. William Duggan and family on Center street.

Mrs. Mary Newkirk of Gardiner, is visiting Mrs. Alice Newkirk on Malden Lane.

SHAWANGUNK.

Shawangunk, Sept. 26.—Lieut. Euen Van Kleeck, M. D., who has been spending a week's furlough at the home of Mrs. M. E. Euen, returned to New York on Sunday.

Word has been received by the parents of John Hals that he is in a hospital suffering with a slight wound in the head.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Van Demark spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Daniel Tuthill.

A company composed of Messrs. J. T. Tucker, Moses Smith, Charles Smith and S. C. Roach, have purchased a 15 h. p. engine and blower for ensilage cutting and other farm uses.

Miss Margaret Tuthill is a guest of Mrs. Albert Seymour at Wallkill this week.

Mrs. Warren Van Kleeck has returned to her home in New York city after spending a few weeks here.

Mrs. C. V. R. Wright was taken to St. Luke's hospital in Newburgh last week where she was operated on for an abscess of the tooth.

A number from Brunswick through the kindness of J. W. S. Cox attended the Red Cross supper at the home of the Misses Jansen on Tuesday evening.

There was a slight frost in the vicinity for the first on Tuesday night.

UNDERNEATH THE CITY HALL DOME

So far this year City Clerk Doramus has issued 170 citizens' hunting and trapping licenses, and only one fishing license.

There have only been 128 marriage licenses issued by the city clerk this year, which is a big falling off in the usual number issued.

The first days for registration and enrollment of voters are October 11 and 12. Every voter who desires to vote at the November election must register in the district in which he resides. There are now twenty districts instead of the usual thirteen. Only the inspectors will serve on registration and enrollment day.

There were no arrests during the night and police court was quiet to-day.

WAR INDUSTRIES COMMITTEE.

Did Plan Originate in Washington or Kingston?

Did Mayor Canfield and the Industrial Workers cause or anticipate the U. S. Dept. of Labor?

My attention has just been called to an article in your paper of tonight's issue on "War Industries Work" where you ask the question—Did the Department of Labor follow the plan of Mayor Canfield and the Kingston Workers when they formed their organization August 28th?

I had in my possession at that meeting a letter and circular from Secretary of Labor W. B. Wilson informing the Central Trade and Labor Council of his plan to form a War Industries Committee in every plant where government work was being done, either directly or indirectly, and to forward names and addresses of the members of the committee to F. T. Hawley, Director of Industrial Plants, care of Dept. of Labor. This letter was dated August 19th.

It is obvious from the above that the department of labor had their plans perfected before Mayor Canfield called the workers together.

Whoever was first in the field is a mere detail. What this organization wants is to see a representative from every factory or industrial plant in the city of Kingston at their next meeting.

Surely you want to know how your money is to be spent. Then come. We need the counsel of each and every worker in the city. We need yours. Don't forget, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, council chambers.

Sept 26th
FRANK RICHARDSON
Secretary Trade & Labor Council.

Kearney Writes The Little Dealer Are in His Sector 100.

Louis Sapp of the Wall Street Hotel, has received a letter from Jack Kearney of this city, who writes of having been in the trenches and says the noise, which he does not mind, reminds him of the Fourth of July. The writer was at one time a bartender at the Hotel Ulster. He writes as follows:

In Active Service — The American Expeditionary Forces, August 26, 1918.

Dear Louie

This is Sunday and we just came out of the trenches and had pretty good luck. You would think it was the Fourth of July here with the noise but we don't mind it any more and believe me we sure keep ducking while we are in the trenches. It is a lot I will have to tell you when I get back that I can't tell you now. The French beer is fine, ha, ha, and we get wine and often think of you when I am drinking. We are waiting to get paid now and I suppose it will be a while drive this time. You know what I mean. Well Louie it isn't much more than sav, only the weather is nice and the cookies keep us busy all the time. You would have to laugh to see them looking for them. Regards to all the bunch. Send me the papers once a week.

JACK KEARNEY,
107th U. S. Infantry.

P. S.—Tell Max I was asking for him.

Captain William R. Kraft.

Recent army orders contain the promotion of First Lieutenant William R. Kraft of this city to captain and adjutant of the 309th Infantry, in France. Captain Kraft has been the assistant adjutant and intelligence officer of that command since its organization at Camp Dix early last year. Captain Secarro, the former adjutant, has been promoted to major. The 309th Infantry sailed from this country last spring with full ranks, nearly 4,000 men.

VICTORY MENUS.

These menus, planned to conserve time, labor and money, to save the foods that are scarce and to give those of which there is an abundance, are Victory Menus. In more senses than one. They are prepared by the Department of Home Economics of the State College of Agriculture and endorsed by the New York State Food Commission.

Breakfast—Apples with prunes, poached barley with top milk, fish balls, coffee.
Lunch or Supper—Cheese soup; victory bread, sautéed green tomatoes, baked bananas with top milk.
Dinner—Lima beans, a la neufchatel, brown bread, vegetable salad, fresh peach shortcake.
*May be omitted and still leave a balanced meal.
Milk for the children to drink at each meal.

Apples With Prunes.
Wash a dozen prunes and soak several hours in 1½ cups of cold water then drain. To the water add ¼ cup sugar and ½ cup corn syrup and boil 2 minutes. Pare 4 apples, cut in halves crosswise, and remove the cores, cooking occasionally. Remove the apples to a serving dish, cook prunes same syrup until soft remove the stones and place one or two prunes in the hollow of each apple. Remove the kernels from the prunes stones and place one kernel in the center of each prune and pour the syrup over all.

Lima Beans a la Neufchatel.
Two cups green lima beans or 1 cup dried lima beans soaked in water over night. 1 teaspoon salt, 1½ cups milk, 2 egg yolks.
Cook the beans in boiling salted water until almost tender. Drain, remove the skins and return to saucepan. Add fat, salt and milk and finish cooking. Just before serving add the slightly beaten egg yolks diluted with a little milk.

Corn Muffins.
One cup cornmeal, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon baking powder, ½ teaspoon soda, 1 cup sour milk, 1½ cup syrup, 2 tablespoons melted butter or other fat.
Mix the ingredients in the order in which they are given sifting the dry ingredients together. Pour the mixture into greased tins and bake the muffins in a moderate oven.

Stuffed Peppers in Indian Style.
Six peppers, 3 tablespoons rice, 2 tomatoes, 1 tablespoon butter, 2 tablespoons milk, 1 egg (hard cooked), 1 slice bread, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon pepper, 1 garlic clove, 1 tablespoon chopped celery, bit of parsley bit of thyme, ½ teaspoon curry powder.
Peel and cut the tomatoes and cook in water with the rice until the rice is soft, add the butter the bread soaked in the milk the egg-yolk and the seasonings. Remove tops and seeds from the peppers and boil for 15 minutes. Remove from the water, land fill with the above mixture. The curry powder gives a distinctly Indian flavor to the dish.

Recipes for any of the dishes in these menus, which cannot be found in cook books may be had by writing to the Department of Home Economics State College of Agriculture, Ithaca, N. Y.

INFLUENZA ADVICE.

Authoritative Information on the Threatened Epidemic.

Albany N. Y. Sept 26.—New York state and the nation at large are confronted by an epidemic of influenza of grip is the warning issued today by the State Commissioner of Health Herman M. Biggs. The commissioner states that bacteriological research on cases of this disease point to the probability that it is caused not by any new organism which would justify the use of the word "Spanish" as describing it, but to the so-called Pfeiffer bacillus or influenza bacillus which caused the serious world epidemic from 1889 to 1892.

A definite conclusion as to the causative factor cannot however, be reached until further laboratory investigations have been completed. This the state laboratory, together with many other laboratories, is undertaking at the present time. The course of the disease when uncomplicated is short, the temperature falling in from 48 hours to three days to normal. In some cases the disease begins with vomiting and diarrhea and the catarrhal symptoms only appear later.

The disease is seldom fatal of itself except in very susceptible or weak individuals. The complications, however, notably pneumonia, are very much to be dreaded; many deaths have already occurred from pneumonia.

Commissioner Biggs stated that strict quarantine measures, such as one would take against other infectious diseases, while theoretically desirable are not practical in view of the highly contagious character and the wide spread extent of the disease and the general susceptibility to it.

Like other infections of the respiratory tract, influenza spreads from one individual to another by contact with the discharges from the nose and throat, scattered by coughing and sneezing, the use of common eating utensils, towels, etc. For this reason, insofar as possible, ladies should avoid crowded places, crowded cars or drinking or any other exertion or over fatigue which tend to weaken the bodily resistance.

There is no known cure for the disease. The patient when first attacked should be to bed and remain there until well.

"His Bridal Night" Here Monday.

The sparkling musical farce, "His Bridal Night" which will be presented at Kingston Opera House Monday, September 30, matinee and evening, has met with great success in all larger cities of the country where it has been shown. The chorus has been selected for its grace and beauty as well as for ability to sing and dance.

And the Fourth Liberty Loan!

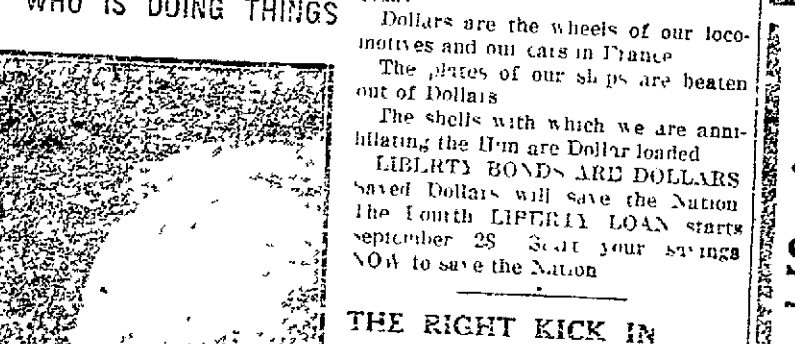

CLARENCE: "DUTY FATHER" AMY YOU REPAID WITH OUR SERVING AGAINST THE HOSPITAL SHIPS? "HARKEN! HARK MY SON—ONLY TEN! THE U. S. DOLLAR SHOULD HAVE SUNK AT LEAST A DECADE!"

INCIDENTALLY SAVED DOLLARS WILL SAVE THE NATION

Incidentally, of course, how much money we're saving we never thought we could save! And won't we be rich with our interest paying Liberty Bonds when it's all over and we're checking over the Great Victory? And now let's hurry let's buy and buy so we can make that victory come soon!

REAR ADMIRAL C. J. BADGER.

Before the war, certain people liked to see the impression that the United States Navy was about equal to the task of guarding New York harbor. Now that it has proved that it can guard a large part of the Atlantic Ocean there is much little criticism. Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger of the General Board of the Navy is one of the men who has put the navy where it is. If his picture could speak his message to you would undoubtedly be "Buy Liberty Bonds in the Fourth Loan!"

PORT EWEN.

Port Ewen, Sept. 27.—Communion service Sunday evening, September 29. The Rev. Leonard Apple, pastor of the Reformed Church, will preach a series of sermons on "Christ's Sermon on the Mount." Mr. Apple's sermon last Sunday was on the mount and has been asked to repeat it, showing what a wonderful truth he brought out. We expect and ought to have the church filled to hear this series of sermons. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parsell and daughter, who have been the guests of Mr. Parsell's father, Abram Parsell, on Main street, returned to New York city Thursday morning. Mrs. W. B. Bradburn of Railroad Avenue has received word that her son entered at the Syracuse fair won two first, one second and one third prize. Her chickens have also been winners at the poultry show at Madison Square Garden, New York city.

Rickenbacker Sure Enough Ace.

By Telegram to The Freeman. With the American Army in France, Sept. 26.—(Night)—Eddie Rickenbacker, the former American speed king, shot down his eighth enemy plane today north of Verdun. Rickenbacker's propeller was tilted with bullets and he was barely able to land safely near Verdun. American aviators dropped five tons of bombs on Drocourt-Meuse, north of Verdun, and Blain, northeast of Verdun.

MAYOR CALLS FOR BAND RECEPTION

Mayor Canfield addresses the following to the citizens of Kingston relative to the reception to be accorded the heroic men composing the French Army Band which arrives here September 30:

Office of the Mayor, Kingston, N. Y., Sept. 27, 1918. Citizens of Kingston: The celebrated French Army Band will enter our city by way of the Rhineclerk ferry at one o'clock on Monday next, September 30th. They will be escorted about the city in automobiles by the Liberty Loan Committee and the official reception committee. The latter committee will consist of all city officials. The automobile parade will end at the City Hall at 2 o'clock. The French Army Band will give a concert there and a patriotic meeting will be held. This celebrated band consists of over sixty men who have served in the war and been discharged because of physical disability caused by being wounded in action. Every one of them has been awarded at least one medal for some special sacrificial and heroic act of courage. They are coming at the instance of the Federal Liberty Loan Committee. Their presence in Kingston will be one of the greatest honors which can or will be conferred upon the city and its people during the war. You are earnestly requested to give due recognition to it. All stores are requested to close at sufficient time prior to two o'clock in order that all employees may attend this demonstration. All stores and residences and buildings along Broadway and throughout the business sections and elsewhere should be generously decorated with the American flag and colors and the French flag or colors. All are urged to attend at the City Hall Park at two o'clock. Hear this band play the "Star Spangled Banner" and "The Marseillaise". PALMER CANFIELD, JR., Mayor.

Requested to Show French Colors. Samuel M. Watts, chairman of the decorating committee for the occasion makes a special request that not only shall the places along the line of parade be liberally decorated, but that there be a large display of French flags. "This band," he said, "will be met at the ferry at 1 p. m. by citizens with automobiles. The members of the band are veterans of the war and Kingston should do them the honor of showing the French colors. The band will be taken in automobiles and will be escorted by an automobile parade, which will go up Broadway, Albany avenue, Clinton avenue, North Front street, Wall street, Main street and down Broadway to the city hall."

A PERTINENT QUESTION.

Could Churches Do Some of Army Uplift Work?

With many of the phases of the war recognized and looked after, I am wondering if the most important one has not been largely neglected. If the divine Master was right when he said, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His Righteousness," then the church at home has been greatly at fault. We pour out our millions to help the Y. M. C. A. when some of the work they are doing should have been done in the home churches. Have not many gone into the army with the feeling, "No man cares for my soul." With this thought in mind I introduced the following at the district conference recently held in the Trinity M. E. Church, and it was unanimously adopted: Whereas, In the midst of this great world war much thought and attention must necessarily be given to it, there is a possibility of losing the evangelistic note from our pulpits and churches. Therefore resolved, That we urge upon all of our preachers and churches the supreme need of a gospel which will win men to Jesus Christ. Never before has the need been so imperative. Many of our parishioners will soon be called to the colors. They should be reached and saved before they go. The plea for men to be saved through repentance and faith in Christ sound out above every other message. We would urge prompt revival efforts in our churches. We pour out our money for Home and Foreign Missions and fail to keep the home fire burning. "These ought ye to have done, and not to leave the others undone." It was said of ancient Israel that in the time of trouble they turned unto the Lord. Ought not we to do so now? I have been looking for a John the Baptist, or a Savonarola, or a John Knox, or a John Wesley to arise and call the people to repentance. Surely the time is ripe.

P. N. CHASE.

High Anxiety to Enlist.

Eight of Rensselaer's husky American youth, each of them 20 years old, walked into Postmaster DeWitt's office Thursday with a demand to be enlisted in the service of the nation. Marcus Mufson, Isadore Werba, Edward Brown, Edward Fox, Edward Morgan, William Macdonald, John Healey and John Dunn are the names of these youths. They are all graduates in Division No. 1 and as the postmaster explained to them must get permission from the board before they can join.

The postmaster gave them a letter to introduce them to whatever official authority they seek, citing them as good character and speaking of them as "a good wife and all good patriots who will not let themselves be trifled with." They left, saying they would take the first train for New York.

NEW SLEEVE TRICK

Plan Admits of Extra Pairs of Arm Coverings.

Are Attached to Blouse of Muslin or Net, Which Serves as a Corset Cover.

There has been designed a simple and popular midseason gown made with a loose peplum shirtwaist that has short sleeves and a rounded low neck. It is not only worn by young girls, but older women find it available for many of their daytime activities. It is made in black and other plain somber colors, and also in figured foulard and printed chiffon. It allows an extra pair of sleeves, and this trick is another revival of an ancient and honorable day when women were not extravagant and depended upon accessories to constantly enliven one well-chosen, dark-lined frock. The separate sleeves are made of muslin, pongee or even coarse lace.

Separate sleeves are a war-time invention. This frock of dark-blue and white figured foulard has a loose peplum blouse held in with a gilt hat cord. The skeleton blouse beneath has loose, flowing sleeves and a rolling collar of heavy white chiffon.

They are attached to a blouse of muslin or net, which serves as a corset cover and carries a collar that is pulled out over the frock.

It does not take much imagination to visualize the constant changes that can be played upon when separate sleeves and collars are permitted in one frock. True, they need constant washing, but many of them do not need starch, and all of them can be easily ironed at home.

It is prophesied, advises a fashion writer, that this form of dressing will grow more in evidence as the winter weather comes on, for the medieval saw in this method of clothing themselves a way to keep warm and to enliven their appearance. So be warned in time, and do not throw away a gown because its armholes and sleeves are worn out. It can be made into a medieval tunic or short apron, which can be worn over separate sleeves and collar attached to a skeleton blouse.

2,137 American Soldiers Are Godfathers To Eight-Year-Old French War Orphan

Jean Passard, Adopted by U. S. Regiment Which Raised $1,000 for His Support, Being Cared for by Y. M. C. A., While Sponsors Are at the Front

PARIS, Sept. 1.—Jean Passard is eight years old. The war has left him an orphan and without relatives. Just how he came into the possession of a certain regiment of engineers in France is clouded with mystery, but he did come into their possession and was officially adopted. When an American regiment adopts a French kid, and many of them have done so, there is no half way business about it. The war time strength of a regiment is 2,137 men. "He's our kid and our mascot, and he isn't going to be brought up as an ignorant," was the consensus of opinion, so the hat was passed, and Jean came into possession of five thousand francs to be used to educate him. That is a thousand dollars in American money. Jean was fitted out with a tiny American uniform, and with a whole regiment to keep an eye on him. He is developing rapidly into an American—also into a military man. Some time after his formal adoption by the regiment, his adopted fathers were called to the front and had to leave Jean behind. Now he is being cared for and fed and educated by the local Y. M. C. A. organization.

His business in life is teaching French to American soldiers, and he says to all who apply for information that he is going to New York to attend the public schools, "Ayres la guerre."
